1. Called Mr. Bibolet, Sen. McFarland's office, to remind him that I not yet had the appointment with Sen. McFarland to turn over to the Senator certain information in connection with his subcommittee's communications investigation. I suggested that if it were desirable, and in view of the fact that the information was classified, that I would be glad to retain it here until such time as they had need of it. After talking with the Senator, Mr. Bibolet concurred in this position.
